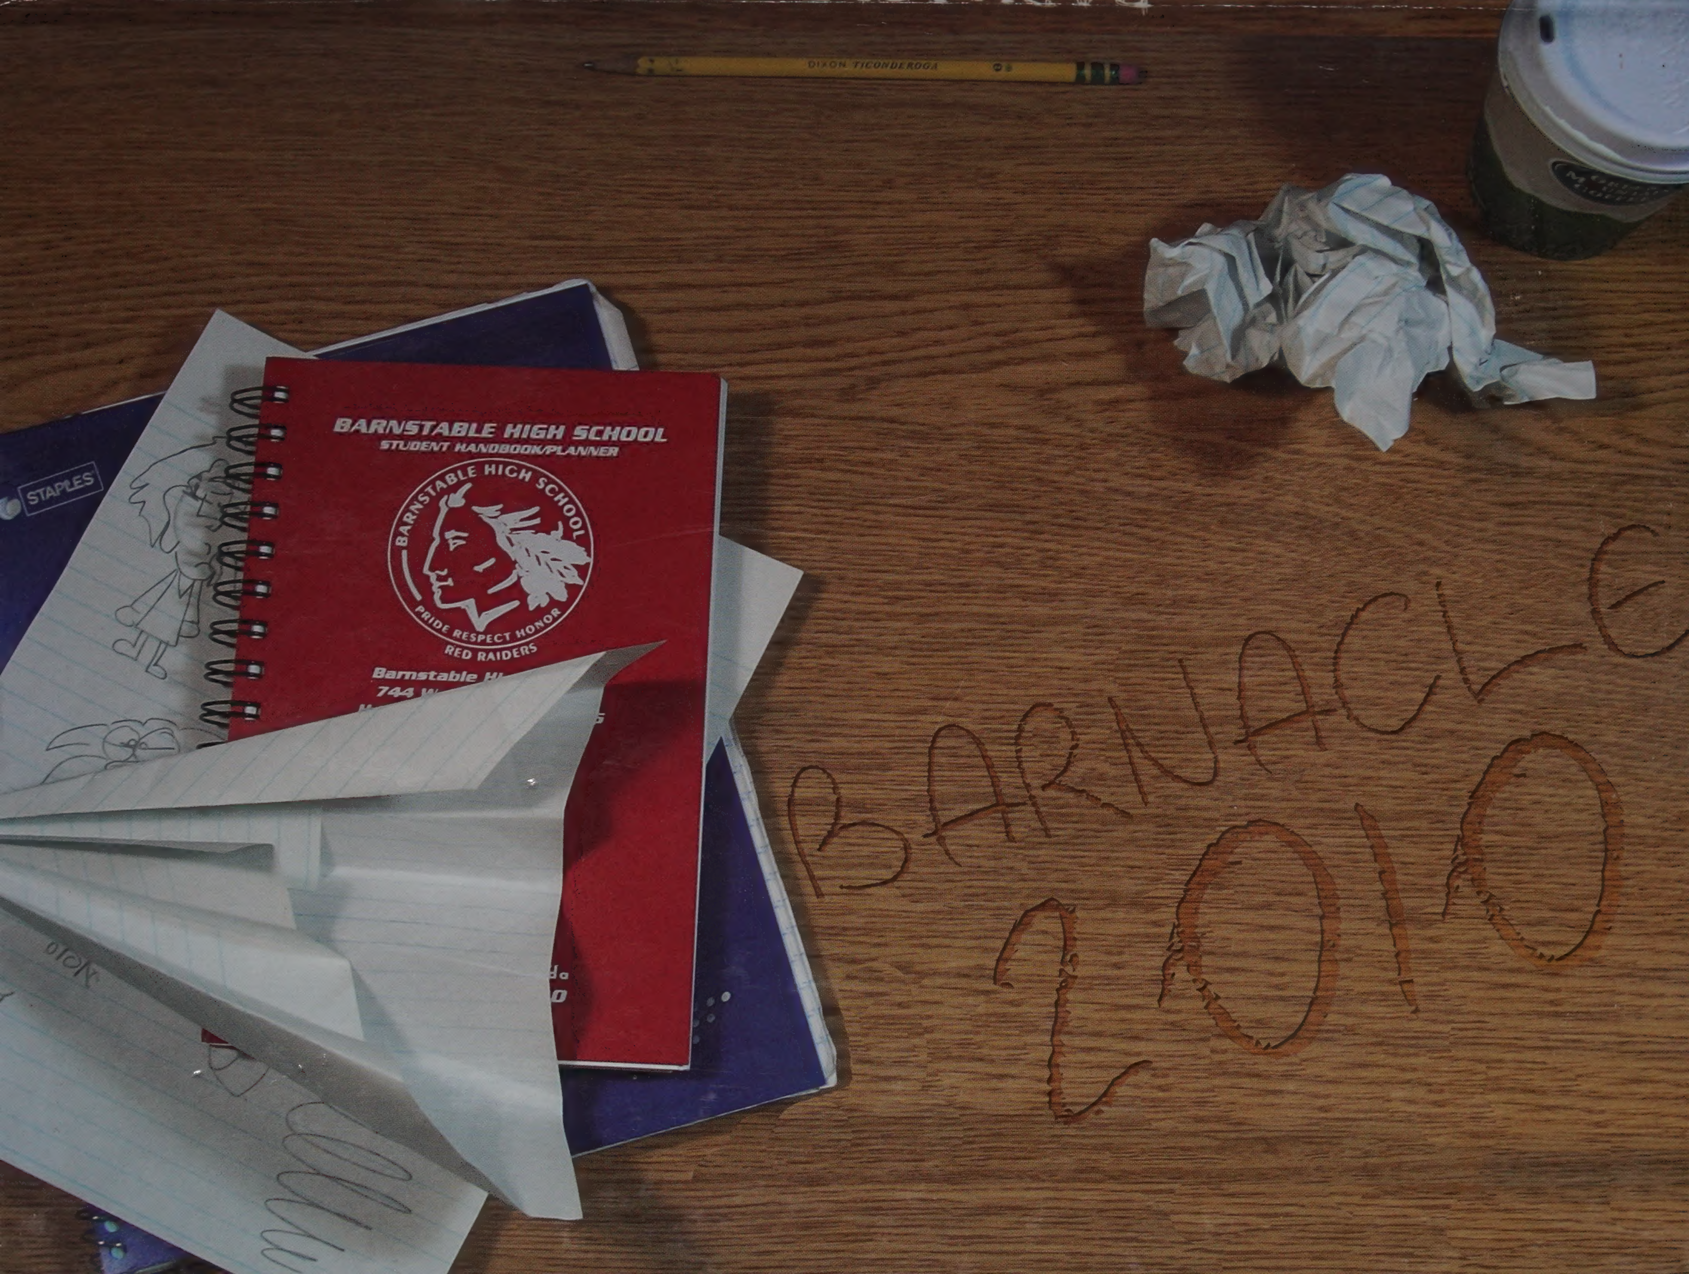
BARNACLE 2010



Gabrielle A. Hayward

"Dream no small dreams for they have no power to move the hearts of men."
-- Goethe

Many amazing memories have been made these past years. Going to baseball games, bonfires, regattas, mystic bowling, prom, working at Camp Lyndon with my favorite people, and continuing my dreams of becoming an Art Therapist. I couldn't have made it through without my loving family and friends. Good luck with all your future plans, seniors. I'll miss you <3

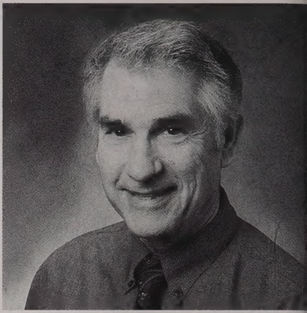
G2G!
MR. HOLLAND
SPOTTED ME!

Patricia Graves, Principal

I am honored to be "graduating" with the magnificent Class of 2010.
After 37 years, I'm finally leaving high school --
it went by so quickly!

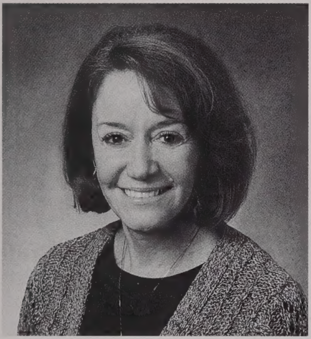
Dr. John Mika, Assistant Principal



"We must not, in trying to think about how we can make a big difference, ignore the small daily differences we can make which, over time, add up to big differences that we often can't foresee."

-- Marian Wright Edelman

Science Dep't. Chair, 1985-98...Housemaster...1998-2002... Ass't. Principal, 2002-2010... Acting Principal, 2006. 25 years at BHS and an additional 15 years in two other schools adds up to many memories. My hope is that I have made a difference in the lives of those whom I have encountered along the way.



Joyce Rogean, Housemaster

"Live as if you were to die tomorrow. learn as if you were to live forever."

-- Gandhi-ji

Leaving BHS is bittersweet... such a rewarding career helping to prepare students for promising futures... I've always been proud to say I work here... no better school anywhere... so many incredible people in 34 years, some my most cherished friends...will truly miss both students and staff, especially those I work so closely with: KL, BW, KG, PD, Leadership Team... So many situations, laughs...would've made a great book! Kath, thanks especially for all you've done for me and House C -- couldn't have done it w/o you... Mark: like yesterday when you, Dean & I were named HM's; wish he were here to celebrate retirement... I'll always be grateful for my "go-to" buddies... I'll miss it here, but I' m excited about time w/ family, travel when it's not school vacation, sleeping in! BHS will always have a special place in my heart. Love and best wishes to all!

Diane Raitto, Clerk

"Be careful with those you meet. All God's angels come to us disguised."

-- James Russell Lowell

How do I say goodbye to this school, the students, the staff? You are all such a big part of my heart. Thank you for all the fond memories. I will miss you all! Do you remember: fake flowers on your birthday, in-your-face chili, holiday parties in the Main Office, talking about cars, 8 track tapes, gotta own a convertible, chaperoning volleyball, my seagulls. My friends, my work buddies always at my back, the Grapevine, Trivial Pursuit. "Barnstable High School reception office; this is Diane." A 1978 metallic blue Gremlin in the front parking lot. My love to you all.

Joy Adams, Project Excel

"If you follow the flock, you could become a lamb chop."

-- Author Unknown

I really enjoyed the past five years at BHS; it's ironic that a program that takes students out of school keeps them in school by enrolling them in online and college courses, word internships, and community service. I will miss the great team here and I am gratified that this program helped 165 students receive their diplomas.

This high school experience has been a realization for me. I appreciate what BHS had to offer me. My friends and my skills are things I can say that made it worth it. If I had to say one statement about high school, I would say I took advantage of the opportunities given, and to reach out for new experiences.
You don't want to look back and regret a decision or an action not taken.

We've allowed our lives to intertwine, crafted unforgettable times, committed regrettable crimes, written out rough lines
in a book all about time, promised ourselves that one day we will shine
but our dreams are waiting.
It's time to follow our souls, this is not farewell to the good times
but a chance to let them roll.
To friends and enemies alike, thank you, good luck, goodbye.

Tasyanne Batista

Thanks to my mom for always helping me at a far off rodeo or school. Also, thanks to my brother for making me push on no matter what: love you forever. Finally KC for always being there bffl! How many times has the same thing been written here? I want to thank all my friends, family, and teachers; but is there still a way to do it originally? There must be, but it would be so far into the original it would go misunderstood and have less meaning than the cliche.
So I'll reluctantly dip into the cliche: thanks, everyone!

Emma Bound

I was born a squishy pink thing. In October of my 14th year, I swallowed a dull star. My molecules and organs were configured. Human after all.

It's been real. It's been nice. But it hasn't been real nice. But in all honesty, it is on this precipice from high school to college that one takes the time to reminisce. These past four years have gone by so quickly; I feel like just yesterday I was only a freshman. I'd like to thank my teachers and my friends for being there for me in these four wonderful years of my life.
It may be over, but it was great.

First I want to thank God for everything, and my family for caring and loving
me. I also want to thank all of my teachers, since pre-school, and my friends for all their support.
I'm glad I met all of you and I wish you all great lives.

Shantoll Beaumont

When I think about leaving high school, I get happy. Not because I didn't like school, but because I am ready to start writing this new chapter of my book. High school has been both good and bad, but I'm glad I've had those moments, because they all have made me stronger. I look back at the person I was and who I am now, and I'm proud of what I see in the mirror. I'd like to thank the people who helped me get through those good and bad years. Teachers, guidance counselors, family members, thank you!

I have experienced some of the best and worst times in my life during these past four years. I have suffered losses and made gains that will remain with me for the rest of my life. It hasn't been easy, but it's done now. I would like to thank those who have made these last four years enjoyable. And now onward to something new.

CAROLINE MARIE FRIES

Lulled to peace in the arms of silence
a hidden song flows like a stream.
Within the notes I know that I am here,
I know that I am whole.

The darkness within is splintered
by the starfire jewel.
The angels of the sea appear to me
in sanctuary.

I call to them for healing,
I call to them for peace.
I feel their emotions,
their essence, their joy.
And beyond the furthest reach
I sense their presence.

A spell is cast.
The turmoil within is banished,
my soul at peace.
Calmed by a love -- so unique, so pure.

I look into the starfire jewel,
the eye of the dolphin.

Our spirits have joined.

The list of behind-the-scenes friends of the Barnacle, as long as it may seem, is probably not complete. We tried to list anyone who helped us to complete an enormous undertaking that involves everything from finding students at the last minute to interrupting classes to snapping photos at inconvenient times to sneaking through the halls Ninja-style when we can't find our passes. :((We never, ever used our cellphones in school, though.) Russ Price Portraits are Priceless!

"My experience with professional photographer Russ Price was great. His photography is incredible and he is fun to work with. Russ made me feel comfortable in front of the camera as he took his time changing my pose and finding the right scene to help bring out my best. He is truly a master photographer, and his creative portraits are different than ones I have seen in the yearbook. If you want the best, then call Russ Price and check out his website." Ben, (lost the game) give Tasha my best. And ya know what? Polio is SO overated anyway.... KIDNEY. Hey Nancy Pants, when you become a fire breathing Oprah watching yodeler with the traveling circus, look me up and we'll become mad chemists with ET and M Dogg. JadeEe! Fix that hailo lil falcon and try to ease up sulky panda. Rosie, Sullivan called... and for the love of ice cream, skinny dipping, and gas gages it's MY PUMPKIN. Still hearing things... that vibrate? (PAGA!... just because he doesn't speak english, doesn't mean you don't pay) Michelle... stay away from bunnies... and Senator Kerry's office. Sarah, nothing is real and nothing to get hung up about Stawberry (Hill) forever... want some sawauce?? And to my psychic friend Hardkaur, you can have a divorce when I become fluent in Spanish. Until then Teddy, keep an eye on those shoulder-touching boys, smoking metro poets, and girls that are "13" - and Elvis in those shutter shades. The narcissi too are bowing to some big thing. Stay Gold Guys.

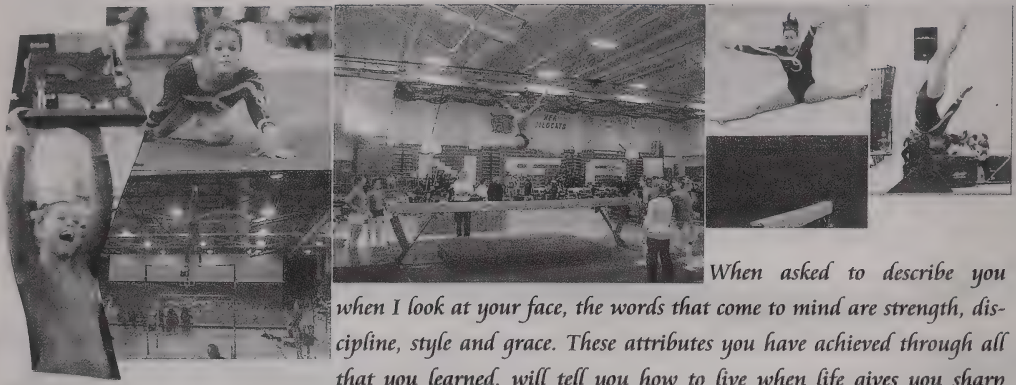
Ps. Hope little Lane Cotton has as much fun at your house as we did Mr. J ;)



When asked to describe you when I look at your face, the words that come to mind are strength, discipline, style and grace. These attributes you have achieved through all that you learned, will tell you how to live when life gives you sharp turns. Your strength will give you the courage through your hardest days, while your discipline keeps you on coarse when it's difficult to stay. Your style and your grace put you in a league that is above the rest, keeping you calm and secure even when you know that you are scared to death. The lessons you have learned in all these early years were sometimes difficult and caused many tears. The young girl I knew who likes to fly through the air, overnight became this woman with tenacity and flair. Take all of these skills to find your success, for there is no doubt in my mind where ever that road takes you, you'll be one of the best.

Congratulations,
seniors!

Best of luck in the future

September Roses

That first big yellow school bus came a'rumbling `round the bend as days at home with Elmo, Arthur and your mom were coming to an end/ little hands let go of ours, you crossed the street and smiled/though it was just a few short yards, it might have been a mile/a wave, then, through the window and you were on your way; September's love, so strong that morn has been with you each day/the pages of September have now turned a dozen times, and love's sure bonds, like Summer roses, around September's heart still wind/you've done your work, and made your mark, giving every day
your best/ you've stood your ground with head erect, you're ready for life's test/with love you're loyal to your friends
and sympathetic too,
though they may
not think you
quite so grand as
dad
and mom and Molly do/time to love is life's great gift, amidst the rush and clatter; golden sands that silent spiral through the glass / I pray
we made ours matter/a part of us calls "let's go back and do it all again"/but life does not permit that choice, earth's wheel remains in spin/ another bus is coming/rumbling in September's
heart/ cross again without our hands,
to make another start/but, Sassie, know
for always, as you smile and head out on your way, September's deep, abiding love
will be with you every day.
